

BIODATA

Supt Ong Chin Lan

*Assistant Director of Sexual, Women and Child Investigation Division (D11)
Criminal Investigation Department
Royal Malaysia Police HQ, Bukit Aman, Malaysia*

SUPT ONG CHIN LAN, aged 56, hailed from Melaka, has been working as a Senior Police Officer in the Royal Malaysia Police Force since 1977. She joined as Probationary Inspector and with her excellent performance; she has since been promoted to Assistant Superintendent of Police in 1989; Deputy Superintendent of Police in 1999 and Superintendent of Police in 2007.

Throughout her 37 years of service, Supt Ong Chin Lan has served in the Special Branch; the Narcotics Crime Investigation Department; the Commercial Crime Investigation Department, the Management Department and now the Criminal Investigation Department. She is currently the Assistant Director of Sexual, Women and Child Investigation Division (D11) of the Criminal Investigation Department at Royal Malaysia Police HQ, Bukit Aman.

Supt Ong Chin Lan was graduated with MSc in Psychology & Criminology from Manchester Metropolitan University, Manchester, UK in 1994 and MSc in Guidance & Counseling from University Putra Malaysia in 1993. She is a Registered and Practicing Counselor (KBPA); was an Executive Council Member of Malaysia International Counselor Association (PERKAMA International) (2005-2009) and had been appointed by the Minister of Women, Family and Social Development as a member of the Board for Counselors between 2007 to Feb 2014.

She has been constantly invited for lectures, talks and as panelist at International, National and inter-agencies Seminars/ Forums on issues involving children and women. Supt Ong Chin Lan works collaboratively with various community agencies, uphold laws and codes of Malaysia and she designs and executes training for police investigators from the special investigation unit to maintain high standard of efficiency. She was instrumental in the establishment of Victim Care Center (VCC) and Child Interview Center (CIC) in the RMP. She has vast experience in personal safety and issues concerning sexual harassment at work place. She maintains good and positive community relationships with other government and non-governmental agencies. She also assists community-based agencies and educational institutions in all activities to create public awareness on crime against women and children.