

To all our friends and supporters,

As we prepare to welcome in the New Year, we at World Youth Foundation would like to say a huge thank you to everyone we have worked with this year.

2014 has been one of the biggest year so far for World Youth Foundation and we couldn't have done it without you. In 2014 we build more partnerships, expanded our global volunteer network and reached out to a huge network of stakeholders.

And next year promises to be even more exciting. In 2015 we shall intensify our efforts to reach out to more young people through our work; especially the My World Global Campaign and look forward to tackling more issues such as climate change, gender equality, youth in decision making, among others.

Thank you for being a great part of our journey and stay tuned for 2015!!

All the best for the holiday season.

Hon. Senator Tan Sri (Dr.) Mohd Ali Rustam
Chairman
