

BIODATA

Mr. K. Narayanasamy A/L Karpaya
Chief Executive of Stamford College
Malacca, Malaysia

Mr. Narayanasamy is an active educator who has worked in the public primary & secondary schools as a teacher as well as a principal, and has served as a tuition provider for many students, mostly on a voluntary basis. Currently continuing the services in a private college providing higher education, while contributing voluntary services in providing motivational talks and staff development sessions, especially for those in the under-privileged sectors.

He has given numerous motivational talks to students, parents and educators in English, Malay and Tamil at schools, community centers in Melaka, Johor, Negeri Sembilan and Selangor.

He has conducted staff development sessions for school personnel in various schools and districts in Melaka, Johor and Selangor. Has been invited to be a speaker on social issues at various seminars.

Had written a series of articles on Tamil school management issues in Malaysia, in Tamil Nesan in 2009