

BIODATA

Ommera Ahmed

Child and Youth Participation Officer ECPAT International, Bangkok

Ommera is Child and Youth Participation Officer at ECPAT. ECPAT International is a global network of organization working together for the elimination of child prostitution, child pornography and the trafficking of children for sexual purposes.

Prior to joining ECPAT, Ommera was the Policy and Advocacy Officer at Girls Not Brides. The Global Partnership to End Child Marriage. Her work focused on policy and advocacy efforts to raise the issue of child marriage at the international level.

She has also worked for British law firm Leigh Day & Co on their human rights cases and for a number of NGOs including Human Rights Watch, the Acid Survivors Trust International and the Kurdish Human Rights Project. Ommera is a fully qualified lawyer in England and Scotland, with a Master degree in Gender Development and Globalization.