A lawyer, Serial Entrepreneur, Coach, Speaker, Writer and Mother. Roslina Chai's professional experience spans government, private and non-profit worlds - from Formula 1 to private equity to education technology to marginalized communities of children to raising awareness against human trafficking.

Uniting Roslina's diverse experience is her life-long quest to elevate the human condition by creating spaces where true conversations can happen; where people feel safe to change mindsets and world views; and where the humanity of all are celebrated.

Drawing from her work at the front-line of poverty eradication and education for the marginalized communities, Roslina invites you on a journey of asking necessarily fundamental questions that will both broaden and deepen your perspectives on child marriage.
